The “hexachord” referenced in this morning’s prelude and postlude is the first six pitches of the modern-day major scale (e.g., c-d-e-f-g-a). This was devised when the 11th-century theorist Guido d’Arezzo took the first pitches of each phrase of the hymn to St. John the Baptist, Ut queant laxis (see H-1982 No. 271, “The great forerunner of the morn”), and isolated them into a pattern of rising consecutive pitches, thereby creating the forerunner of our present-day “do-re-mi.”

Nursery Volunteers Needed! (Also, Coffee Hour Hosts, and Ushers!)

We are re-opening our nursery at St. Matthew's on Sundays for both the 8am and the 10:30am services. In order to offer this necessary ministry for our families we need adult volunteers who are fully vaccinated and can assist Jane Fischer on Sundays. Even if you can only commit to one Sunday at one service time, any commitment you can give is most welcome! If you are available, vaccinated, and interested please email Mary at welcome@stmatthewshillsborough.org with your name and availability.

Small Informal Gatherings hosted by Vestry Members and the Rector this Summer

To celebrate being able to regather in person, the vestry is delighted to host a series of small gatherings for parishioners over the coming months. The plan is to offer three small gatherings of about 20 people each month, hosted by a different vestry member. The specifics of each gathering will be announced one month at a time, and parishioners will be invited to use SignUp Genius to sign up on a first come, first served basis. In order that as many people as possible can participate, we ask that you sign up for just one event.

Here are the remaining events in July:

- Sunday July 25: A Family Walk to Whit's; 4:00-5:30pm
Jane and Robert have made it a family tradition to walk with the kids to Whit's most Sundays and they'd like to share this with you. Gather at St. Matthew's for a shady walk along the Eno to Whit's Frozen Custard, and back through Hillsborough to the church. Round Trip this is 2.5 miles, but we will have drivers ready at Whit's to take weary walkers back to church as needed. The ice cream is on the Rector, but do bring water! Indicate on the signup if you think you'll need a ride back!
- Friday, July 30: A Wine & Cheese Party hosted by Edward & Phyllis Wright; 4:00-6:00pm; more details to come. (fully vaccinated only)
- Saturday, July 31: Beer and Bocce and Lemonade; 4:00-5:30pm
Come to the Rectory Back-40 for a challenging game of Bocce, with local IPAs and homemade lemonade. Kids can play soccer.

Orange Congregations In Mission

Providing Beef Stew to Orange Congregations in Mission Food's Pantry is a commitment St. Matthew's has made and kept for years now. Bring your donated cans to the church anytime. Drop them in the basket under the alcove of the Hayden Building or leave them by one of the doors. So far we have reached 60 cans towards our July goal of 175; 115 more needed.

Prison Ministry Workshops Invitation from Hillsborough United Methodist Church

Join Rev. Cameron Merrill in July and August for a series of conversations on how churches can become communities of care for those affected by incarceration. Each gathering will focus on ministry and care with a particular group of justice-affected folks, with various community leaders coming to share more about their work and how our churches can be involved. The gatherings will be on Wednesdays at 7pm in the Hillsborough Methodist Church's fellowship hall, with coffee and desserts served.

July 21: Scripture & the Call to Prison Ministry

July 28: Ministry with Justice-Affected People

August 18: Ministry with Justice-Affected Families

THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA HAS A NEW PODCAST!

Roundtables on Race, hosted by the Rev. Kathy Walker, invites conversation around the effects of race on many facets of society, going deeper than traditional conversations usually allow. Each season of the podcast focuses on only one topic, allowing every episode to be an opportunity to discuss an aspect of that topic and explore the layers and nuance. We will actually get into the weeds with some of these topics to better understand the history and opportunities for redirection. Season One focuses on race and the new media, with episodes exploring historical context, journalist training, representation in the newsroom, setting the tone, the audience's role and more. The first two episodes debuted last week, with new episodes to be added every Friday in July. "Roundtables on Race" is available on many of your favorite podcast sources. Find it on: Diocesan website, Apple podcasts, Google podcasts, Spotify, Stitcher, TuneIn
