FEEDING GOD'S PEOPLE FROM THE ABUNDANCE OF GOD'S GRACE

Welcome to St. Matthew's. We hope while you are here you will be nourished, welcomed, and sustained. We consider St. Matthew's a place of hospitality, peace, and renewal, where people can come to be fed through worship and the sacraments; through the care and compassion of our members; through our welcome of the stranger in our midst; through our service to the larger community of Hillsborough and the world. August 8: A Special Parish Forum will be held from 9:30am-10:15, in person and via Worship Zoom: Robert will lead a discussion about our upcoming program year's challenges and opportunities.

Welcome our Summer Duke Divinity School Intern, Anita Salazar, as our preacher today. Both she and Austin Stapella are concluding their time with us. Join us at coffee hour for a time of thanksgiving for their service.

We extend a warm welcome to Anne Parks, who is serving as Guest Organist at the 10:30 Eucharist today.

August 10: Carpaccio and Cappadocians: On August 10th, from 6:30-8:30pm, our intern, Austin Stapella, will lead the second of a two-part seminar on Gregory of Nyssa in the Fellowship Hall. Gregory was a theologian in the 4th century from Cappadocia (a region in present-day Turkey). He was a very eccentric but profound thinker and was highly influential on later theologians and philosophers. The seminar will be a casual environment where questions and digressions are encouraged. Appetizers and assorted beverages will be provided.

August 15: Preschool Playgroup: On Sunday August 15th & 22nd the Preschool Playgroup will meet after the 10:30am service at Cameron Park Elementary School's playground right next to St. Matthew's. All children ages 2-5 with their families are invited. Bring a picnic lunch for your family and we'll enjoy time together (socially distanced) this summer. Questions? Contact Amy Huacani (ahuacani@gmail.com).

August 15: Safe Haven Support for Caregivers on Meeting Zoom at 2:00pm: Caring for others is becoming necessary for families and friends. We believe this new ministry will bring nonjudgmental encouragement, reduce the isolation, and provide emotionally healthy relationships within a safe and confidential space. The next meeting is August 15 at 2:00pm. Questions? Contact Para Drake (chaplaindrake@gmail.com; 919-698-8575) or David McDuffie (dcmcduffie@gmail.com; 705-540-4385).

August 15: A Parish Life Ice Cream Social at 4:00pm: You are invited to the courtyard area outside the Fellowship Hall at 4 o'clock for ice cream, popsicles and other frozen treats. Besides cool snacks, we'll have croquet, (back due to popular demand from our June picnic), kickball, giant bubbles, badminton and other outdoor games and festivities. Adults are welcome to join in or bring their lawn chairs and view the action while enjoying icy goodies and a relaxing afternoon together. Circle the date and make plans to be part of the fun! --The Parish Life Committee

August 22: Faith & Arts: Blood Done Sign My Name: On Sunday afternoon at 3:00, August 22, Mike Wiley will present his play "Blood Done Sign My Name." This is his adaptation of Timothy Tyson's book of the same name in which Mike plays all the characters and brings to life the events surrounding the 1970 murder of Henry Morrow in Oxford, NC. It is an excellent opportunity to hear again the gifted singer Mary D. Williams who hovers around the stage offering her voice and spirit, underscoring and enhancing the message of the play. Tickets are $20 and available through the office. Limited seating available.

Yoga at St. Matthew's: Kate Wisz, our diocesan intern, and Anne Kenyon would like to offer yoga classes at St. Matthew's. They want to know: What styles of yoga would be most desirable to you? When would you like to see such classes offered? Fill out the yoga survey (narthex and Parish House foyer). You can call or text Kate at 919.208.5052. They hope to start in August.

Got an iPad you might want to donate to the church? We need one to run our on-line service broadcast via zoom. It does not need a cell connection, or have a great deal of memory, but it does need to be recent.

Orange Congregations In Mission: Providing Beef Stew to Orange Congregations in Mission Food's Pantry is a commitment St. Matthew's has made and kept for years now. Bring your donated cans to the church anytime. Drop them in the basket under the alcove of the Hayden Building or leave them by one of the doors. So far, we have collected 37 cans towards our August goal of 175.

Prison Ministry Workshops Invitation from Hillsborough United Methodist Church: Join the Rev. Cameron Merrill for a series of conversations on how churches can become communities of care for those affected by incarceration. Each gathering will focus on ministry and care with a particular group of justice-affected folks. The meetings are on Wednesdays at 7pm in the Hillsborough Methodist Church fellowship hall, with coffee and desserts served. August 18: Ministry with Justice-Affected Families; August 25: Ministry after Incarceration.
